Former Prisoners' Mail
Now Sent to Pershing

Letters and packages for former prisoners of war in Germany should now be addressed in care of the American Expeditionary Force. Persons designated to be notified in case of emergency will be promptly notified by the War Department upon the arrival of released prisoners at American camps. According to the terms of the armistice all such prisoners were to be released immediately by Germany.

To send Christmas parcels to former prisoners of war it will be necessary for the sender to secure coupons from local Red Cross chapters.

The German naval officer who regretted that the German fleet had to be surrendered without being beaten unknowingly expressed the sentiments of every English and American sailor.—New York Sun.

NUXATED

IRON

Nuxated Iron helps out astonishing strength and energy into the veins of men and brings roses to the cheeks of pale, nervous, run-down women. Says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outpatient Dept.), N. Y., and Westchester County Hospital, "I prescribe it regularly in cases of depleted energy, anemia and lack of strength and endurance. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to quickly enrich the blood, make beautiful, healthy women and strong, vigorous men. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded."

20-CENT MILK BRINGS ACTION

Prices of Local Dealers Stir Food Office to New Activity.

Complaints that several milk dealers in this city are charging as high as 20 cents a quart for milk have led the District Food Administration to take up with renewed vigor its investigation into the conditions surrounding the sale of this commodity.

Several remedies have been suggested, but for some reason all have been dropped without definite action. Food Administrator William proposed dividing the city into zones for the proper distribution of milk, but as the dealers objected to this plan it was thrown into the discard. Another plan, which is still under consideration and may be adopted within the next few weeks, is the placing of milk quotations on the weekly fair price list issued by the administration.

Committee at Work.

A committee consisting of Dr. W. H. Price, representing the Public Health Service; Dr. William C. Fowler, District Health Officer, and Dr. Ernest Kelly, representing the Department of Agriculture, is at present at work making a complete inquiry into the situation. The results of their investigations will be submitted to the District Commissioners in the form of recommendations for such remedies as may be considered necessary.

Dr. Clyde King, Federal Milk Commissioner for Pennsylvania, and C. L. McGee, of Philadelphia, will assist in the investigation.

URGE PUBLIC WORKS FOR IDLE FIGHTERS

Popular Government League Will Urge Congress to Provide.

Employment on public works of all unemployed soldiers and sailors and workmen returning from foreign service will be urged upon Congress by the Popular Government League. A three-day reconstruction conference, January 3, 4 and 5 next, will be held in Washington to perfect this appeal. It was decided last night at a meeting held at the Ebbitt Hotel.

The immediate expansion of the domestic and foreign commerce of the United States will also be urged upon Congress.

Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, presided at the meeting last night. Among the members present were: David J. Lewis, Dr. Frederick C. Howe, Basil Manly, Representative John M. Beard, Dr. Ellwood M. Meade, Judson King, Edwin Potter, Arthur E. Older and Carl Beck.

K. of C. Has 1,000 Dolls To Please French Kiddies

Passports for 1,000 dolls, uniformed in the Knights of Columbus garb, are being sought by the Knights of Columbus Committee on War Activities. One thousand French kiddies will jump with joy on Christmas because of these visiting strangers.

Rehabilitating Christmas is thus to be one of the first acts of the Knights of Columbus committee, who are actively engaged in building up all departments of the country.

The Knights recently contributed 10,000 francs to the fund for French soldiers' widows and orphans, which is managed by Madame Foch, wife of the great marshal.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

LOCAL FORECAST.
District of Columbia: Cloudy Friday, probably rain at night or Saturday; no decided temperature change; gentle to moderate northwest to north winds.

Maryland: Cloudy Friday, probably rain at night or Saturday, except snow in the mountains; little change in temperature; gentle to moderate northwest to north winds.

Virginia: Cloudy Friday, rain southwest portion and night in southeast portion; Saturday (fairly) rain; moderate north and northeast winds.

GENERAL FORECAST.

A high pressure area of great magnitude covers the Western two-thirds of the country with its crest over Northern Saskatchewan and there is no low pressure area of consequence although very moderate ones over Southern Alabama and Southern Arizona give some promise of further development.

Generally cloudy weather persists east of the Rocky Mountains and there are rains in the lower Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the Gulf States, light local rains and some from the Lake Region eastward, and quite general though mostly light snows in the Missouri Valley and the Northwest.

It is considerably cooler in the Lower Mississippi Valley and the West Gulf States, and temperatures are now considerably below the seasonal average from those districts northwestward. West of the Rocky Mountains the weather was generally clear with falling pressure and some light snows in the Northwest.

There will be rain today in the East Gulf and the South Atlantic States, probably extending during tonight and Saturday into the Middle Atlantic States and New England. Over Northern New England there will also be local rains or snows today, but elsewhere east of the Mississippi River there will be no precipitation of consequence during the next forty-eight hours.

It will be colder today in Tennessee and the East Gulf States and tomorrow in the South Atlantic States while to the northwest temperatures will be moderately low except along the Atlantic Coast.

If the weather clears there will be heavy frosts tomorrow morning in Georgia, Northwest Florida, Southern Alabama and Southern Mississippi and probably freezing temperatures in the north portions of the two last named States.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1, 1918, 179°; excess of temperature since November 1, 1918, 53°; accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1, 1918, 4.05; deficiency of precipitation since November 1, 1918, 0.26.

Temperature same date last year—Highest, 52°; lowest, 41°.

TWO RHINE CITIES ALLIES COMMAND.

Cologne (above), in a bend of the Rhine, was an important city even in the days of the Roman empire. It is a commercial center and is strongly fortified. Beneath the Cologne Cathedral the bones of the Three Wise Men who took gifts to the Infant Jesus are said to rest.

Koblenz (below) commands a wide stretch of valley at the juncture of the Rhine and the Moselle and is a manufacturing center. It also is strongly fortified.

FILE 3 WILLS FOR PROBATE

Widow of Everett D. Yerby Named Sole Beneficiary in Last Testament.

Three wills were filed yesterday in the office of the District Registrar of Wills. Everett D. Yerby, who died October 13 last, in a will dated May 19, 1913, left all his property to his widow, Cornelia D. Yerby.

Emily S. Kretschmar, who died October 28 last, named Mrs. Mary A. Coggins, her sister, executrix and sole beneficiary in her will dated July 19, 1917. In case of the death of her sister, the niece of the deceased, Ella Louise Coggins, was named sole heir.

Margaret W. Lewis, formerly of 425 M street northwest, who died October 3 last, bequeathed her entire property to her sister, Susan Alice Hunter, for life, in a will dated May 24, 1911. After Mrs. Hunter's death the property is to go to Miss Lewis' brothers, Sherman W. Lewis and Henry A. Sherman.

4 NURSES HONORED; FOUGHT "FLU" HERE

Leave Washington to Battle Epidemic Raging in Alabama.

Miss Lillian Jones Negley, Miss Bonnie Nell Laird, Miss Maude L. Edwards and Mrs. Ada B. Lucas have been stationed at the U. S. Public Health Hospital here at Eighteenth and Virginia avenue northwest, and were transferred on account of the seriousness of the epidemic at Florence.

Officials at the Public Health Service have been particularly pleased with the effective manner in which these young nurses have handled the scores of patients attended.

Miss Negley will be missed by her large circle of friends here, among whom she was very popular.

Sues for Divorce and Alimony.

Lillian Hunt filed a plea for absolute divorce from her husband, Thomas Hunt, yesterday in the District Supreme Court. Mrs. Hunt asks for alimony and the costs of the suit.

Nobody Ever Died

—from getting up too early in the morning, but thousands of the world's biggest men began their careers by learning to sell, and this they did through actual work on newspapers.

Any successful career must contain an element of salesmanship and the sooner a boy learns this the quicker success will come.

The Washington Herald requires the services of a number of wide-awake lads who want to do a few hours' work before school and make $10 to $30 a month thereby. Ask Mr. Buck at The Herald Office and he will tell you all about it.

MANY D.C. JOBS FOR FIGHTERS

Preference Promised for Returned Soldiers in Business Openings.

Returning soldiers will find positions waiting for them in the business establishments of this city, according to Charles J. Columbus, secretary of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association.

The majority of the business houses of Washington, Mr. Columbus declared, need more help than they have at present, and the returned soldier or sailor will be given preference, when applying for work. Employers will be glad to welcome back old employees who answered the call to the colors because these men are already experienced.

"A large percentage of the new population of this city," Mr. Columbus said, "will remain after the declaration of peace. Many of these men or women will send for their families. The city will need more homes to house its growing population, and that will mean more work for the building trades and more work for the returned builder in khaki."

Present Population to Stay.

It is the belief of many of the department heads that the present population of the city will remain after the end of the war. Capt. Julius I. Peyser, chief of the Division of Housing and Health, has compiled figures showing that there are more than 125,000 government employees in Washington, not counting army men.

"Many of these so-called war workers," Capt. Peyser stated recently, "will continue to make their homes in Washington for some time to come."

The reabsorption of the old employees will mean practically no discharge of new employees, owing to the general increase in trade business men declare.

SUFFRAGE VICTORIES TO BE CELEBRATED

Dr. Anna Shaw and Three Senators Will Speak Here Sunday.

Senators from three States in which there have been suffrage victories this year, Michigan, South Dakota and Oklahoma, will speak at the headquarters of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, 1626 Rhode Island avenue, at a victory celebration next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

This year's suffrage victories will be the subject of an address by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, and Miss Marjorie Shuler, who had charge of the publicity and political work in the Oklahoma campaign, will tell the story of Oklahoma's victory. Miss Shuler is the new publicity director of the Washington suffrage headquarters. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

ASKS $50,000 FOR LOST LOVE.

Luke Brock Alleges Another Stole His Wife's Affections.

Claiming damages of $50,000 for alienation of his wife's affections, Luke Brock filed suit yesterday in the District Supreme Court against James H. Doman.

It was alleged by the plaintiff, that he had lived in happiness and harmony with his wife, Mamie L. Brock, whom he married August 17, 1912, until May 10, 1918, when James H. Doman, by acts and blandishments, enticed her from the comfort and society of her husband, practically to the extent of desertion. Mr. Brock claimed damages on the ground of having suffered great distress of mind and pain of body.

Women Writers Meet Tonight.

The Woman's Press Association will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. Mary Lockwood, at the Columbia, at 7:45 o'clock.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied to Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stiff and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear; no more hacking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what you need from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Adv.

N. Y. EDUCATOR BEGINS WAR LECTURE SERIES

John H. Finley Will Speak for National Geographic Society.

Speakers for the National Geographic Society's winter series of lectures will be largely men who have been engaged in war work overseas. War topics will be the major part of the program. Meetings will begin today at the New Masonic Temple, Thirtieth street and New York avenue northwest. Addresses every Friday afternoon at 4:45 and Friday evening at 8:15 will continue until April.

"The Rescue of the Holy Land" by John H. Finley, chancellor of the University of New York will be the opening lecture this afternoon.

A Service for All

"It is a source of much satisfaction to trust companies that the Federal Government is availing itself so extensively of the services of their officers and employees in the essential tasks of war finance, in large administrative capacities, in the solution of taxation problems, in the conservation of credits, in the control of foreign exchange, in the custody of alien enemy property, in investments and many other fields equally important."

—F. H. Sisson.

The public generally does not recognize the extent and the availability to the individual of trust company service, but the war has opened the eyes of many. We invite YOU to use us.
